1. After lifting weights and working on strength training for a whole year, Nicole's muscles are rock hard. Here rock hard means: A, sore B, strong C, heavy 2. Alexis heard a strange noise while she walked on the forest path at night. She stopped, steadfast like a statue, and tried to listen for what it was, steadfast means: A, running swiftly B, wandering around C, standing still 3. She didn't like the garlic in the pizza; it made her breath smell, garlic is a: A, cheese B, seasoning C, meat topping 4. At first, Chris thought that rejection from Harvard was the worst thing ever. But he really loved the college where he went instead. The rejection turned out to be a blessing in disguise, a blessing in disguise is something that: A, plays tricks on a person's B, brings obvious benefits C, turns out better than expected 5. Rudolph interviews for a job at the movie theater, He is cortain he will get it. When the movie theater does not hire him he feels deflated like a balloon, Here deflated like a balloon means: A, extremely disappointed B, light and airy C, limp and rubbery 6. Dining rooms are usually adjacent to kitchens so that a person can go back and forth between them easily, adjacent means: A, next to B, identical to C, apart from 7. The twin sisters feel a strong bond between them. They share everything, including most of their time. Here bond means: A, agreement B, relation C, adhesive 8. Heidi's mother said the politician was economical with the truth because he left cut his own fault in the problem, economical with the truth means: A, telling the important facts B, not telling the whole story C, saving money in politics 9. The principal asks us to put trash in the appropriate receptacle instead of throwing it on the floor, receptacle means: A, container B, backpack C, pocket	Vocabulary 8_1			Mertin Mertin
A, sore B, strong C, heavy 2. Alexis heard a strange noise while she walked on the forest path at night. She stopped, steadfast like a statue, and tried to listen for what it was, steadfast means: A, running swiftly B, wandering around C, standing still 3. She didn't like the garlic in the pizza; it made her breath smell, garlic is a: A, cheese B, seasoning C, meat topping 4. At first, Chris thought that rejection from Harvard was the worst thing ever. But he really loved the college where he went instead. The rejection turned out to be a blessing in disguise a blessing in disguise is something that: A, plays tricks on a person's B, brings obvious benefits C, turns out better than expected 5. Rudolph interviews for a job at the movie theater. He is certain he will get it. When the movie theater does not hire him he feels deflated like a balloon. Here deflated like a balloon means: A, extremely disappointed B, light and airy C, limp and rubbery 6. Dining rooms are usually adjacent to kitchens so that a person can go back and forth between them easily, adjacent means: A, next to B, identical to C, apart from 7. The twin sisters feel a strong bond between them. They share everything, including most of their time. Here bond means: A, agreement B, relation C, adhesive 8. Heidi's mother said the politician was economical with the truth because he left out his own faurt in the problem, economical with the truth means: A, telling the important facts B, not telling the whole story C, saving money in politics 9. The principal asks us to put trash in the appropriate receptacle instead of throwing it on the floor, receptacle means:	Studer	nt Name:		Date: Day (c
2. Alexis heard a strange noise while she walked on the forest path at night. She stopped, steadfast like a statue, and tried to listen for what it was. steadfast means: A. running swiftly B. wandering around C. standing still 3. She didn't like the garlic in the pizza; it made her breath smell. garlic is a: A. cheese B. seasoning C. meat topping 4. At first, Chris thought that rejection from Harvard was the worst thing ever. But he really loved the college where he went instead. The rejection turned out to be a blessing in disguise. a blessing in disguise is something that: A. plays tricks on a person's mind B. brings obvious benefits C. turns out better than expected 5. Rudolph interviews for a job at the movie theater. He is certain he will get it. When the movie theater does not hire him he feels deflated like a balloon. Here deflated like a balloon means: A. extremely disappointed B. light and airy C. limp and rubbery 6. Dining rooms are usually adjacent to kitchens so that a person can go back and forth between them easily, adjacent means: A. next to B. identical to C. apart from 7. The twin sisters feel a strong bond between them. They share everything, including most of their time. Here bond means: A. agreement B. relation C. adhesive 8. Heidi's mother said the politician was economical with the truth because he left out his own fault in the problem, economical with the truth means: A. telling the important facts B. not telling the whole story C. saving money in politics 9. The principal asks us to put trash in the appropriate receptacle instead of throwing it on the floor, receptacle means:	1.
steadfast like a statue, and tried to listen for what it was. steadfast means: A. running swiftly B. wandering around C. standing still 3. She didn't like the garlic in the pizza; it made her breath smell. garlic is a: A. cheese B. seasoning C. meat topping 4. At first, Chris thought that rejection from Harvard was the worst thing ever. But he really loved the college where he went instead. The rejection turned out to be a blessing in disguise. a blessing in disguise is something that: A. plays tricks on a person's mind B. brings obvious benefits C. turns out better than expected 5. Rudolph interviews for a job at the movie theater. He is certain he will get it. When the movie theater does not hire him he feels deflated like a balloon. Here deflated like a balloon means: A. extremely disappointed B. light and airy C. limp and rubbery 6. Dining rooms are usually adjacent to kitchens so that a person can go back and forth between them easily, adjacent means: A. next to B. identical to C. apart from 7. The twin sisters feel a strong bond between them. They share everything, including most of their time. Here bond means: A. agreement B. relation C. adhesive 8. Heidi's mother said the politician was economical with the truth because he left out his own fault in the problem, economical with the truth means: A. telling the important facts B. not telling the whole story C. saving money in politics 9. The principal asks us to put trash in the appropriate receptacle instead of throwing it on the floor, receptacle means:		A. sore	B, strong	C. heavy
 She didn't like the garlic in the pizza; it made her breath smell. garlic is a: A. cheese B. seasoning C. meat topping At first, Chris thought that rejection from Harvard was the worst thing ever. But he really loved the college where he went instead. The rejection turned out to be a blessing in disguise. a blessing in disguise is something that: A. plays tricks on a person's mind B. brings obvious benefits mind C. turns out better than expected Rudolph interviews for a job at the movie theater. He is certain he will get it. When the movie theater does not hire him he feels deflated like a balloon. Here deflated like a balloon means:	2.	Alexis heard a strange noise w steadfast like a statue, and tri	while she walked on the forest page ed to listen for what it was, stea	ath at night. She stopped, dfast means:
 A. cheese B. seasoning C. meat topping 4. At first, Chris thought that rejection from Harvard was the worst thing ever. But he really loved the college where he went instead. The rejection turned out to be a blessing in disguise. a blessing in disguise is something that: A. plays tricks on a person's B. brings obvious benefits c. turns out better than expected 5. Rudolph interviews for a job at the movie theater. He is certain he will get it. When the movie theater does not hire him he feels deflated like a balloon. Here deflated like a balloon means: A. extremely disappointed B. light and airy C. limp and rubbery 6. Dining rooms are usually adjacent to kitchens so that a person can go back and forth between them easily, adjacent means: A. next to B. identical to C. apart from 7. The twin sisters feel a strong bond between them. They share everything, including most of their time. Here bond means: A. agreement B. relation C. adhesive 8. Heidi's mother said the politician was economical with the truth because he left out his own fault in the problem, economical with the truth means: A. telling the important facts B. not telling the whole story C. saving money in politics 9. The principal asks us to put trash in the appropriate receptacle instead of throwing it on the floor, receptacle means: 		A. running swiftly	B. wandering around	C. standing still
4. At first, Chris thought that rejection from Harvard was the worst thing ever. But he really loved the college where he went instead. The rejection turned out to be a blessing in disguise. a blessing in disguise is something that: A. plays tricks on a person's mind B. brings obvious benefits C. turns out better than expected 5. Rudolph interviews for a job at the movie theater. He is certain he will get it. When the movie theater does not hire him he feels deflated like a balloon. Here deflated like a balloon means: A. extremely disappointed B. light and airy C. limp and rubbery 6. Dining rooms are usually adjacent to kitchens so that a person can go back and forth between them easily, adjacent means: A. next to B. identical to C. apart from 7. The twin sisters feel a strong bond between them. They share everything, including most of their time. Here bond means: A. agreement B. relation C, adhesive 8. Heidi's mother said the politician was economical with the truth because he left out his own fault in the problem, economical with the truth means: A. telling the important facts B. not telling the whole story C, saving money in politics 9. The principal asks us to put trash in the appropriate receptacle instead of throwing it on the floor, receptacle means:	3. She didn't like the garlic in the pizza; it made her breath smell. garlic is a:			l. garlic is a:
the college where he went instead. The rejection turned out to be a blessing in disguise is something that: A. plays tricks on a person's mind B. brings obvious benefits c. turns out better than expected 5. Rudolph interviews for a job at the movie theater. He is certain he will get it. When the movie theater does not hire him he feels deflated like a balloon. Here deflated like a balloon means: A. extremely disappointed B. light and airy C. limp and rubbery 6. Dining rooms are usually adjacent to kitchens so that a person can go back and forth between them easily, adjacent means: A. next to B. identical to C. apart from 7. The twin sisters feel a strong bond between them. They share everything, including most of their time. Here bond means: A. agreement B. relation C. adhesive 8. Heidi's mother said the politician was economical with the truth because he left out his own fault in the problem, economical with the truth means: A. telling the important facts B. not telling the whole story C. saving money in politics 9. The principal asks us to put trash in the appropriate receptacle instead of throwing it on the floor, receptacle means:		A. cheese	B. seasoning	C. meat topping
5. Rudolph interviews for a job at the movie theater. He is certain he will get it. When the movie theater does not hire him he feels deflated like a balloon. Here deflated like a balloon means: A. extremely disappointed B. light and airy C. limp and rubbery 6. Dining rooms are usually adjacent to kitchens so that a person can go back and forth between them easily, adjacent means: A. next to B. identical to C. apart from 7. The twin sisters feel a strong bond between them. They share everything, including most of their time. Here bond means: A. agreement B. relation C. adhesive 8. Heidi's mother said the politician was economical with the truth because he left out his own fault in the problem, economical with the truth means: A. telling the important facts B. not telling the whole story C. saving money in politics 9. The principal asks us to put trash in the appropriate receptacle instead of throwing it on the floor, receptacle means:	the college where he went instead. The rejection turned out to be a blessing in disg			st thing ever. But he really loved be a blessing in disguise, a theater does not hire him he feels deflated like a balloon. Here deflated like a balloon means: A. extremely disappointed B. light and airy C. limp and rubbery 6. Dining rooms are usually adjacent to kitchens so that a person can go back and forth between them easily. adjacent means: A. next to B. identical to C. apart from 7. The twin sisters feel a strong bond between them. They share everything, including most of their time. Here bond means: A. agreement B. relation C. adhesive 8. Heidi's mother said the politician was economical with the truth because he left out his own fault in the problem, economical with the truth means: A. telling the important facts B. not telling the whole story C. saving money in politics 9. The principal asks us to put trash in the appropriate receptacle instead of throwing it on the floor, receptacle means:			B. brings obvious benefits
 Dining rooms are usually adjacent to kitchens so that a person can go back and forth between them easily. adjacent means: A. next to B. identical to C. apart from The twin sisters feel a strong bond between them. They share everything, including most of their time. Here bond means: A. agreement B. relation C. adhesive Heidi's mother said the politician was economical with the truth because he left out his own fault in the problem. economical with the truth means: A. telling the important facts B. not telling the whole story C. saving money in politics The principal asks us to put trash in the appropriate receptacle instead of throwing it on the floor. receptacle means: 	5. Rudolph interviews for a job at the movie theater. He is certain he will get it theater does not hire him he feels deflated like a balloon. Here deflated li		n he will get it. When the movie ere deflated like a balloon means:
them easily. adjacent means: A. next to B. identical to C. apart from 7. The twin sisters feel a strong bond between them. They share everything, including most of their time. Here bond means: A. agreement B. relation C. adhesive 8. Heidi's mother said the politician was economical with the truth because he left out his own fault in the problem. economical with the truth means: A. telling the important facts B. not telling the whole story C. saving money in politics 9. The principal asks us to put trash in the appropriate receptacle instead of throwing it on the floor. receptacle means:		A. extremely disappointed	B. light and airy	C. limp and rubbery
 The twin sisters feel a strong bond between them. They share everything, including most of their time. Here bond means: A. agreement B. relation C. adhesive Heidi's mother said the politician was economical with the truth because he left out his own fault in the problem. economical with the truth means: A. telling the important facts B. not telling the whole story C. saving money in politics The principal asks us to put trash in the appropriate receptacle instead of throwing it on the floor. receptacle means: 	6.
their time. Here bond means: A. agreement B. relation C. adhesive 8. Heidi's mother said the politician was economical with the truth because he left out his own fault in the problem. economical with the truth means: A. telling the important facts B. not telling the whole story C. saving money in politics 9. The principal asks us to put trash in the appropriate receptacle instead of throwing it on the floor. receptacle means:		A, next to	B. identical to	C. apart from
 8. Heidi's mother said the politician was economical with the truth because he left out his own fault in the problem. economical with the truth means: A. telling the important facts B. not telling the whole story C. saving money in politics 9. The principal asks us to put trash in the appropriate receptacle instead of throwing it on the floor. receptacle means: 	7.			e everything, including most of fault in the problem. economical with the truth means: A. telling the important facts B. not telling the whole story C. saving money in politics 9. The principal asks us to put trash in the appropriate receptacle instead of throwing it on the floor. receptacle means:		A. agreement	B. relation	C. adhesive
 The principal asks us to put trash in the appropriate receptacle instead of throwing it on the floor. receptacle means: 	8.			ruth because he left out his own
floor. receptacle means:		A. telling the important facts	B. not telling the whole story	C. saving money in politics
A. container B. backpack C. pocket	9.		rash in the appropriate receptac	cle instead of throwing it on the
		A. container	B. backpack	C. pocket

Studer	nt Name:		Date: Loc ~
1.	Carrie falls on the ice but calmly resumes skating as soon she gets up from the ground. resumes means:
	A. starts again	B. firmly refuses	C. takes a rest
2.	It is very dangerous to run outside on icy ground. You might slip and hit your head or dislocate a shoulder. dislocate means:
	A. freeze over	B. get a concussion	C. come out of place
3.	The hockey game erupted into a brawl after two players started to throw punches, brawl means:
	A. skating routine	B. group dance	C. big fight
4.	"Did you hear the announcement? Our teacher is retiring!" says William to his friends. "Yeah, we heard yesterday, William," his friend Carlos says. "That's old news!" old news means:
	A. already known	B. top secret	C. very boring
5.	Ibrahim chugs a whole gallon of water quickly, and then rolls on the ground like a beached whale groaning that his stomach hurts. like a beached whale means:
	A. husky	B. saturated	C. helpless
6.	The loud buzzing of the fly irked us until we could shoo it out the window. irked means:
	A. patronized	B. activated	C. annoyed
7.	Chet tried to rectify the disagreement between his friends, but only made it worse, rectify means:
	A. remember	B. agree with	C. make better
8.	The student said he feels remorse for stealing money from the student government. "It was wrong. I shouldn't have done it," he says, remorse means:
	A. glee	B. regret	C, foolish
9.	Sara serves us hot beverages like tea, coffee, and hot chocolate. A beverage is something to:
	A. boil	B. drink	C. decorate
10.	The drive on the snow-covered roads was nightmarish. Here nightmarish means:
	A. awful	B. dreamy	C. tiring

Student Name:___

			•
1.	It is very dangerous to run outside on icy ground. You might slip and hit your head or dislocate a shoulder. dislocate means:
	A. freeze over	B. get a concussion	C. come out of place
2.	Sitting around the fire, the campers started to tell ghost stories. But the first story was so terrifying, it curdled my blood . I crawled into my tent and covered my head. curdled my blood means that it me.
	A. soothed	B. scared	C. amused
3.	"Did you hear the announcement? Our teacher is retiring!" says William to his friends. "Yeah, we heard yesterday, William," his friend Carlos says. "That's old news!" old news means:
	A. already known	B. top secret	C. very boring
4. All Karen needs to be content is a book, a hammock, and a glass of lemonad happy as a clam. as happy as a clam means:			ass of lemonade. Then she is as
	A. peaceful and content	B. nervous and excited	C. eating delicious seafood
5.	The loud buzzing of the fly irke	ed us until we could shoo it out	the window. irked means:
	A. patronized	B. activated	C. annoyed
6.	Joey's first car was imperfect , but he loved driving it anyway, imperfect means:
	A. new	B. destroyed	C. flawed
7. The student said he feels remorse for stealing money wrong. I shouldn't have done it," he says, remorse me		•	e student government. "It was
	A. glee	B. regret	C. foolish
8.	When the campers all got food poisoning, it was like a fly in the ointment for their vacation. fly in the ointment is something that:
	A. you find camping	B. makes people sick	C. ruins a good thing
9.	The birdwatcher looks at the blue jay's nest through binoculars , counting the number of eggs he sees inside. binoculars let a person:
	A. hear things that are very quiet	B. see things that are far away	C. touch things that are high up
10.	It's important to put some form of identification tag on a pet. If it goes missing, people will knowhere to return it. Here identification means:
	A. personal information	B. scientific documents	C. missing reports

Vocabulary 8_8			Martin Da a
Studer	nt Name:		Date: Day
1.	Mateo likes to take his time when he eats. His brother says he is slow as molasses at dinnertime. Here slow as molasses means:
	A. unhurried	B , hungry	C. sweet
2.	Erin sees her baby cousin for the first time and thinks she is as cute as a button! as cute as a button means:
	A. adorable	B. tiny	C. crying
 Everyone gets along with the neighborhood mailman. He is genial, outgo delivers good news! genial means: 			. He is genial, outgoing, and usually
	A. friendly	B. hopeful	C. elderly
4.	The medics arrived on the scene of the accident and made sure all the casualties were treated. A casualty is someone who has been:
	A. forgotten	B. injured	C. accused
5.	Marta had to be on the bus at 7:00 a.m. sharp or she would miss the field trip. Here shar means:		e would miss the field trip. Here sharp
	A. approximately	B. exactly	C. pointy hletes come to practice every day. When they don't try hard, he nails! tough as nails means:
	A. stiff	B. strict	C. metallic
7.	It's surprising that Christina gets the role as the lead ballerina in the Nutcracker, because she has no prior experience as a dancer, prior means:
	A. previous	B. prancing	C. professional
8.	Philip had a small protrusion on his elbow after he fell down skating. Here protrusion means:
	A. lump	B. bone	C. brace
9.	After looking for a few minutes, Uri located his hometown on the map. located means:
	A. estimated	B. drew	C. found
10.	"This is not your mother's signature!" the teacher says to the student, looking at the permission slip, "You wrote this! It's a forgery! " forgery means:
	A. invention	B. attempt	C. fake

Studen	it Name:		Date: Date
1.	Erin sees her baby cousin for the first time and thinks she is as cute as a button! as cute as a button means:
	A. adorable	B. tiny	C. crying
2.	Ms. Trujillo said to the class, "Your homework and test scores are equally important. Along with attendance, they will determine your final grade." determine means:
	A. decide	B. equate	C. align
3.	The medics arrived on the scene of the accident and made sure all the casualties were treated. A casualty is someone who has been:
	A. forgotten	B. injured	C. accused
4.	The hikers looked haggard after spending the night lost on the mountain, haggard means:
	A. worn out	B. defeated	C. hungry
5.	The coach requires that his athletes come to practice every day. When they don't try hard, he yells at them. He is tough as nails! tough as nails means:
	A. stiff	B. strict	C. metallic
6.	Terry never lets his sister's teasing bother him. It's like he's immune to her taunts. immune means:
	A. unaffected by	B. quick to respond	C. interested by
7.	. Philip had a small protrusion on his elbow after he fell down skating. Here protrusion means:
	A. lump	B. bone	C. brace
8.	. Shoshanna's favorite actor is Kenji Yamamoto. She thinks he's handsome, generous, and talented. She really puts him on a pedestal . put on a pedestal means:
	A. enjoy	B. idolize	C. defend
9	. The hungry dog sits near the picnic table, hoping to get a morsel of leftover food. A morsel is a
	A. little piece	B. dog trick	C. quick glimpse
10	The detective believed the burglar accessed the house through an unlocked window. Here accessed means:
	A. protected	B. cleaned	C. entered